

Free lecture & discussion in Chicago. All are welcome.

MAD LIBERATION: Reforming the Mental Health System!

Presenter: David W. Oaks

When: Wednesday, May 23, 2007
7:00 pm to 8:30 pm

Where: Roosevelt University
2nd Floor Congress Lounge
430 S. Michigan Ave.

What is the Mad Movement?

What is Mad Pride?

Why is empowerment crucial for recovery?

David was born and raised on Chicago's South Side. As a student at Harvard he was locked up in a psychiatric institution five times. David graduated anyway and became an advocate. He now lives in Oregon where he directs MindFreedom International (MFI). This is David's 31st year working as a human rights activist.

MFI is an independent nonprofit coalition defending human rights and promoting humane alternatives in the mental health system.

Sponsors: Social Justice Studies Program and Economics Department at Roosevelt University, Pomegranate Health Collective, Mad Tea Party, Museum for Universal Self Expression (MUSE), Access Living of Metropolitan Chicago, MindFreedom Chicagoland. Phone: 541-345-9106 E-mail: oaks@mindfreedom.org

www.mindfreedom.org