

Join Us Sunday, 17 May 2009, 1 PM in San Francisco, for a Celebration of Creative Support vs. Psychiatric Corruption!

When the American Psychiatric Association holds their huge Annual Meeting at Moscone Center, join mental health clients and psychiatric survivors out front for a nonviolent Festival of Resistance!

Celebrate peer support and alternatives to the “medical” model upheld by a psychiatric profession that sold out to the drug industry! Psychiatric corruption kills! Mad pride heals!

Martin Luther King often called for “creative maladjustment” to overcome injustice and embrace dignity and freedom. If you wish, bring a costume, prop and sign. Do a skit. Sing a song. Speak out, as long as it’s peaceful. Be in a YouTube video made at this action. Or just be there!

Confirmed speakers/performers: Larry Belcher, Executive Director, California Network of Mental Health Clients (CNMHC); Frank Blankenship of Florida, MindFreedom Affiliates; Delphine Brody, client/survivor advocate, Mental Health Services Act Director, CNMHC; Michele Curran, long-time client advocate; Leonard Roy Frank, activist, author & electroshock survivor; Al Galves, PhD, of New Mexico: psychologist, mental health consumer, author, MFI board member; Molly Hogan, coordinator, MF San Francisco; Ellen G. Levine, PhD, MPH., Psychologists for an Ethical APA; Ashley McNamara, artist, writer, and activist with The Icarus Project & Bay Area Radical Mental Health Collective; Matt Morrissey, mental health counselor, MFI board member; David W. Oaks from Oregon, psychiatric survivor and director of MindFreedom International; Ron Unger from Oregon, mental health counselor and coordinator, MF Lane County; Sally Zinman, long-time client/survivor activist. And more, including YOU in a public speak out!
